Introduction

对话简介

U.S.-CHINA TRACK II DIALOGUE ON HEALTHCARE

In 2017, the National School of Development at Peking University and the National Committee on U.S.-China Relations established a Track II Dialogue on Healthcare between the United States and China to discuss major issues surrounding healthcare faced by both nations. Dr. Mark McClellan, a US former FDA Commissioner, Professor and Director of the Robert J. Margolis Center for Health Policy at Duke University leads the American team. Dr. Gordon G. Liu, Peking University (PKU) BOYA Distinguished Professor of Economics at the PKU National School of Development, Dean of PKU Institute for Global Health and Development, and an elected member of the Chinese Academy of Medicine leads the Chinese team.

The Dialogue brings Chinese and American leading experts in healthcare policy and practice together to discuss critical healthcare issues, aiming to explore areas of improvement for collaboration and cooperation between China and the U.S. It concludes with a key set of points for considerations and policy recommendations in both countries. Based on the Dialogue, a consensus report will be followed to be circulated to relevant high-level departments in both governments.

中美健康二轨对话

“中美健康二轨对话”由北京大学国家发展研究院与美国美中关系全国委员会联合举办，自2017年起，每年举办一次，在中国和美国交替进行。美方团长为美国食品药品监督管理局前局长、杜克大学商学与医学健康政策玛戈里斯讲习教授Mark McClellan博士。美方召集人为美国美中关系全国委员会主席Stephen Orlins。中方团长为中国医院协会会长、原卫生部副部长、原国家卫生和计划生育委员会副主任刘谦博士。中方召集人为北京大学全球健康发展研究院院长、北京大学国家发展研究院长江学者特聘教授、中国医学科学院学部委员刘国恩博士。

对话专家为中美两国医疗健康、经济发展、国际关系等领域的杰出专家和行业代表，围绕中美两国医疗健康领域相关主题开展坦诚深入的对话交流，并形成双方内部的共识要点报告，分别呈递中美两国的要务部门，供国家决策参考。

The National Committee on U.S.-China Relations is a non-profit educational organization that encourages understanding of China and the United States between citizens of both countries. The Committee's continuity of experience and depth of associations with senior officials and distinguished citizens of China and the United States make it a unique national resource.

Established in 1966 by a broad coalition of scholars and civic, religious, and business leaders, the Committee was founded in the belief that vigorous debate of China policy among Americans was essential and that balanced public education could clarify U.S. interests and strengthen our foreign policy. Similarly, the founders believed that over time dialogue with Chinese citizens would enhance mutual understanding, a basic requirement for stable and productive relations.

Over the decades, the Committee's basic purposes have not changed, although programs have been developed in response to shifting needs and opportunities. The Committee focuses its exchange, educational, and policy programs on international relations, economic development and management, governance and legal affairs, environmental and other global concerns, mass communication, and education administration.

The Committee's programs draw strength from its members, who now number more than 700 Americans from all parts of the country, and nearly 60 corporations and professional firms. They represent many viewpoints, but share the belief that increased public knowledge of China and U.S.-China relations requires ongoing public education, face-to-face contact and forthright exchange of ideas.

美中关系全国委员会是一个非赢利的、教育性的非政府组织，其宗旨是促进美国和中国人民之间的相互了解。委员会与美中两国高级官员及两国各界知名人士多年深入交往的经验，使其成为一个极其独特的美国机构。

本会于1966年由学界、民间、宗教界及商界领导人物联手创立。创会者们认为：在美国人民之间展开对中国政策问题的积极讨论是必不可少的；在中国问题方面对美国公众进行更全面的教育，会帮助说明美国所关注的问题，从而加强国家对外政策的制定。与此同时，创会者们相信，作为一稳定积极双边关系的基础，与中国民众长期的对话将促进相互了解。

本会在交流、教育、政策方面的项目基本在以下几个领域开展：国际关系，劳动和社会保障，经济发展和管理，政府管理及法制，大众媒体，教育管理，以及诸如环保、人口和公共健康等全球性问题。

National School of Development at Peking University

The National School of Development (NSD) at Peking University is a comprehensive college that offers a multidisciplinary environment for teaching and research in economics, management science, and public policy. Its predecessor, the China Centre for Economic Research (CCER) was established in 1994 by Professor Justin Yifu Lin and five other overseas-trained economists. Following its expansion of teaching and research, CCER was renamed the National School of Development in 2008.

The NSD has a strong faculty featuring domestically and globally recognized scholars such as Justin Yifu Lin, Qiren Zhou, Wen Hai, Weiyang Zhang, Guoqing Song, Weifang Min, Yang Yao, Yiping Huang, Gordon G. Liu, Ling Li, Yaohui Zhao, and Jun Fu. The NSD upholds Peking University's values of inclusiveness and academic freedom; it promotes socially meaningful research in economics, management science, and public policy, and is committed to contributing to China's economic and social progress.

The NSD is China's leading institution that combines teaching, research and policy advising. It is an integral part of Peking University's drive to become a world-class university. The NSD offers teaching programs in three areas: academia, business and public policy. Its academic programs include an economics master and PhD program, a bachelor program in national development, and a double-major economics program.

NSD's faculty has published numerous academic papers in domestic and international journals. Many professors are China's leading scholars in their respective fields. The CCER is an internationally recognized networking center for academic exchanges.

The NSD is also one of the leading think tanks in China. It brings together research resources within Peking University and regularly participates in China's policy debates. Over the years, it has produced influential policy advices on important issues concerning industrial policy, rural reconstruction and SOE reform, etc. Some of them have been adopted by the government.
